

SCHEDULE B
UCONN RESEARCH PROGRAM INFORMATION

Please complete the following with respect to research conducted at the Project (UCONN 2000 funded building). For purposes of this Schedule B, the term basic research means any original investigation for the advancement of scientific knowledge not having a specific commercial objective. For example, product testing for a non-governmental trade or business is NOT basic research. Basic research is to be distinguished from applied research which, while advancing scientific knowledge, has a commercial or pecuniary objective.

Building Name:  Lessee Name:

Is such non-UConn or non-governmental entity a 501(c)(3) organization?  YES  NO

A. If any part of the Project will be used for corporate sponsored research, please complete the following:

1) Is research limited to basic research:  YES  NO

if NO, explain:

2) Is the corporate sponsor of such research required to pay the same price that would be paid by a non-sponsoring party for any license or other use of technology resulting from such research?

YES  NO

if NO, explain:

B. If any part of the Project will be used for research that is related to a particular industry and funded by multiple corporate sponsors, please complete the following:

1) Is research limited to basic research:  YES  NO

if NO, explain:

2) Is the performance of the research controlled and supervised by UConn or another governmental entity?

YES  NO

if NO, explain:

3) If a patent or other product results from the research, will UConn or another governmental entity be the sole owner of such product?

YES  NO

if NO, explain:

4) Are the corporate sponsors of such research limited in their rights to a non-exclusive and royalty-free license to the product of such research?

YES  NO

if NO, explain: